

NJ is an overcrowded, noisy, busy, and stressful state. We need respite from this which includes protection of our home & cell phone lines from telemarketers. If we want a consumer product, we can order it on line or go out and get it...the phones should be private and protected.